He's the one on the left — the 50-year old lumbar fusion patient who's just come from surgery, and needs a custom spinal orthoses overnight. On the right? That's Sean Cadeaux, mold technician, one of over 100 SpinalTech employees dedicated to serving patients like Bernie rapidly, from two strategic locations. Sean brings 15 years of experience in customizing tough-to-fit orthoses to Bernie's critical need, and a team of orthotists, mold technicians, and experts in foam and plastics surrounds him.

Like all of us, he has a passion for custom fit. Find out for yourself.
